If your hotel is located in the city center, your guide will meet you there to begin the walk. Otherwise, a short taxi or motorbike ride will take you to the starting point for your journey through Sai Gon's hidden alleys:

📍 Mong Bridge

Begin your walk on this 19th-century steel bridge built by the French, offering sweeping views of the Saigon River and city skyline.

#SaigonAlley

📍 Xom Chieu Market

Immerse yourself in one of District 4's busiest traditional markets, bustling with fresh produce, seafood, and daily essentials.

#KhanhHoiTemple

📍 Hidden Alleys

Explore narrow lanes alive with street food stalls, family-run shops, and the true energy of local life.

#NhaRongWharf

📍 Local Coffee Break

Pause at a neighborhood café to enjoy a glass of authentic Vietnamese iced coffee and soak up the atmosphere.

#CoffeeBreak

📍 Riverside Walk

Glimpse daily life along the Saigon River, where ferries and fishing boats still come and go.

Your walk ends with an easy return across the river, or you may choose to stay in District 4 to savor its famous street food scene. End of services.
